Dear Governor Perry:

As a resident of Texas, I am concerned about the issues listed below and wish to make you and the Legislature aware of my opinions.

Lottery Profits for Education: Some are urging lawmakers to pass legislation that would require lottery profits to go to fund public education. Those in favor say television and print advertisements led them to believe the money would go to education, rather than to a general fund. They add that Texas education is in dire need of the funding. Those against it say many worthy causes are in need of funding, including transportation, and that the state should not dedicate all funds to education. Are you in favor of dedicating lottery profits to public education?

() YES () NO (X) UNDECIDED

My Comments: IF this lowers the taxes each County implements to each home owners to fund schools

Water Use Taxes: Lawmakers are considering a measure that would call for state water use taxes to be raised for non-essential water uses, such as landscaping and recreational use. Those in favor say the state must learn to conserve water and that taxation is the best way to do that. Those against such a measure say what some consider non-essential, others consider essential. They add that desalination or wastewater reclaiming methods would be better for the state. Are you in favor of raising water use taxes?

() YES (X) NO () UNDECIDED

My Comments: _____

Distracted Driving: Some are urging state lawmakers to pass a law that would call for heavy fines, jail time, and loss of driver's license for drivers who text or e-mail while driving. Those in favor say hundreds of thousands are injured or killed on the road each year because drivers are paying attention to a hand-held device. Those against such a measure say texting and e-mailing are a part of modern life and most drivers do it safely. They say only drivers who actually cause accidents should receive those penalties. Are you in favor of such a law?

(X) YES () NO () UNDECIDED

My Comments: _____

Photo ID to Vote: After circuit judges in Washington D.C. struck down the Texas Photo ID law, some are continuing to call for a law that would require voters to present a valid photo ID at the polls. Those in favor say voter fraud is rampant and state lawmakers should continue to push for such law to make sure thousands of illegal immigrants don't get a say at the polls. Those against it say it puts an unnecessary burden on lower income people who may not have a driver's license, and it unfairly discourages them from going to the polls. Are you in favor of continuing to push for a photo ID law?

Lottery Profits for Education: Some are urging lawmakers to pass legislation that would require lottery profits to go to fund public education. Those in favor say television and print advertisements led them to believe the money would go to education, rather than to a general fund. They add that Texas education is in dire need of the funding. ☒ YES ☐ NO ☐ UNDECIDED

My Comments: When the lottery started approx.
20 years ago, it was told to the citizens
that the income would go to "education".
Apparently it has not but it should.

Water Use Taxes: Lawmakers are considering a measure that would call for state water use taxes to be raised for non-essential water uses, such as landscaping and recreational use. Those in favor say the state must learn to conserve water and that taxation is the best way to do that. Those against such a measure say what some consider non-essential, others consider essential. They add that desalination or wastewater reclaiming methods would be better for the state. Are you in favor of raising water use taxes?

My Comments: One life lost as a result of texting is one too many. What message could be so important that a life would be lost in an accident.

State OPINION Ballot

Dear Governor Perry:

As a resident of Texas, I am concerned about the issues listed below and wish to make you and the Legislature aware of my opinions.

Lottery Profits for Education: Some are urging lawmakers to pass legislation that would require lottery profits to go to fund public education. Those in favor say television and print advertisements led them to believe the money would go to education, rather than to a general fund. They add that Texas education is in dire need of the funding. Those against it say many worthy causes are in need of funding, including transportation, and that the state should not dedicate all funds to education. Are you in favor of dedicating lottery profits to public education?

☒ YES☐ NO☐ UNDECIDED

My Comments: _____

Distracted Driving: Some are urging state lawmakers to pass a law that would call for heavy fines, jail time, and loss of driver's license for drivers who text or e-mail while driving. Those in favor say hundreds of thousands are injured or killed on the road each year because drivers are paying attention to a hand-held device. Those against such a measure say texting and e-mailing are a part of modern life and most drivers do it safely. They say only drivers who actually cause accidents should receive those penalties. Are you in favor of such a law?

☐ YES☒ NO☐ UNDECIDED

My Comments: _____

Water Use Taxes: Lawmakers are considering a measure that would call for state water use taxes to be raised for non-essential water uses, such as landscaping and recreational use. Those in favor say the state must learn to conserve water and that taxation is the best way to do that. Those against such a measure say what some consider non-essential, others consider essential. They add that desalination or wastewater reclaiming methods would be better for the state. Are you in favor of raising water use taxes?

☒ YES☐ NO☐ UNDECIDED

My Comments: _____

Photo ID to Vote: After circuit judges in Washington D.C. struck down the Texas Photo ID law, some are continuing to call for a law that would require voters to present a valid photo ID at the polls. Those in favor say voter fraud is rampant and state lawmakers should continue to push for such law to make sure thousands of illegal immigrants don't get a say at the polls. Those against it say it puts an unnecessary burden on lower income people who may not have a driver's license, and it unfairly discourages them from going to the polls. Are you in favor of continuing to push for a photo ID law?

It is impossible to ignore the blatant hypocrisy of you and your parties callous refusal to provide LIFE SAVING services through MEDICAID EXPANSION to literally hundreds of thousands of your fellow Texans whose "RIGHT TO LIFE" you so ardently supported as unborn infants.

How can you who have been blessed with so much, including the VERY BEST in healthcare, deny it to others who need it so desperately. UNCONSCIENTABLE!!!

My daughters could be denied the right to vote in the next election because of differences between drivers license and voter registration info. OUTRAGEOUS!!! I will advise them of the problem, WHO HAS CAUSED IT, AND WHY! I will also suggest they spread the word about your parties' doing all it can in Texas, as well as the rest of the country, to suppress the voting of selected groups, WOMEN VOTERS AMONG THEM!!!
